

TE PŪTAHI - TRUST TAIRĀWHITI FESTIVAL HUB

Te Pūtahi - The Trust Tairāwhiti Festival Hub is the point of confluence for Te Tairāwhiti Arts Festival 2020. Named after Teina Moetara's Māui Pūtahi, the stellar beginning of our 2019 programme – Te Pūtahi is where we can all gather to be part of the Festival.

Join us before or after a show, or bring the whole whānau along to soak up the festival atmosphere.

Full of live performance, markets, kai and fun for the whole whānau, the Trust Tairāwhiti Festival Hub is also home to Te Ara i Whiti, a range of shows at the neighbouring Lawson Field Theatre and our fabulous cabaret programme at our festival club at The Marina. There are plenty of excuses to gather friends and whānau and make it a date. We can't wait to see you there!

KAI STREET FOOD FESTIVAL

Te Tairāwhiti Arts Festival and City Centre Vibrancy team up, once again, to bring you Kai Street Food Festival - a special festive event on Friday October 2nd. Kai Street Food Festival offers up a kete full of delicious, family-friendly food as we celebrate the opening of Festival 2020.

With more than 40 food vendors showcasing their skills and passions, Kai Street Food Festival-goers can expect a new range of interactions that celebrate the artistry and creation of kai and our passion for food.
